

Painting Spring Bulbs with Oil Glazes Art Workshop

Event Date:

Sat, Feb 23, 2013

Jean Brinton Jaecks, Artist

Explore early techniques utilized by the Dutch Masters to create luminous oil paintings of spring bulbs. Artist Jean Brinton Jaecks, will guide you through the fundamentals of oil painting, including composition, transferring your drawing, glazing and color mixing. The Dutch Masters created luminous paintings with glazes of transparent oil. The U.S. Botanic Garden's exotic bulb collection will provide subjects for botanical paintings. Botanical accuracy and attention to detail will be emphasized. Slides and botanical illustrations will enhance the learning experience. All levels of students are welcome and individual attention will be given. Please note: Materials list can be found here. Please bring a lunch.
