

Special Tour: Noteworthy National Parks-a-Plenty!

Event Date:

Tue, Dec 06, 2016

Staff at the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center, the Library of Congress, and the United States Botanic Garden

Come visit the U.S. Capitol campus and celebrate the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service and the 50th anniversary of the passing of the National Historic Preservation Act. While journeying from the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center, Library of Congress, and the U.S. Botanic Garden, learn about the history of the National Parks, the legislation that works to preserve the United States' natural, cultural, and historical resources, and see artistic botanical representations of a variety of national parks and historic places as part of the 2016 Season's Greenings exhibition. Please note: This is a walking tour, with portions being held outdoors. We suggest wearing comfortable shoes and bringing sunscreen and weather appropriate protective clothing. Please arrive at the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center approximately 20 minutes prior to program start time to accommodate security screening measures. The tours on December 1, 6, and 8 are repeats of the tour on November 29.

DATE: Tuesday, December 6

TIME: UPDATED TIME 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.

LOCATION: Tour will meet in Emancipation Hall at the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center

FREE: This program is full

