

Visit

Welcome!

The U.S. Botanic Garden is a museum with a difference - our artifacts are the living treasures of the world. As a living plant museum, our collections, including flowers, fruits, and labels should not be removed or disturbed. We invite you to return again and again, to watch us grow and see our ever-changing exhibits.

Admission

Admission to the U.S. Botanic Garden is free. The Conservatory and National Garden are open every day of the year from 10:00 AM until 5:00 PM, and extended evening hours staying open until 7 p.m. until Labor Day. Bartholdi Park is open every day of the year from dawn till dusk.

Our Visitor Services desk in the Conservatory lobby is staffed each day to assist you:

- Take advantage of our Plant Explorer's Field Journal for an educational and fun experience.
- Ask for a Junior Botanist kid's backpack of exploration, for ages nine and above.
- Obtain a wheelchair for use around the Conservatory. We also have a balloon-tire wheelchair for outdoor use in gravel areas in the National Garden.
- Find out details on upcoming tours and special programs and events at the U.S. Botanic Garden.

Photography and Sketching

Visitors are permitted to take photographs of the public areas at the U.S. Botanic Garden for personal use only, and must be taken with hand-held cameras. Such photography is strictly prohibited.

- Hand-held film cameras, video cameras or lap easels for sketching may be used at any time, as long as they do not affect the public's enjoyment of the exhibits.
- For permission to use tripods, easels or art material containing solvents during the week, please reserve a permit in advance by contacting Laboratory Services. Permits are obtained onsite at the Visitor Information Services desk in the Conservatory.
- Wedding, engagement and professional photography is not permitted.
- Please read the full Photography and Art Policy for more details.
